NEWS AGENT'S CASE PUZZLES PHYSICIANS

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., Feb. 18.-Dennis Kinney, a railway news agent, died at St. Elizabeth Hospital last night after proving an enigma to local surgeons and physicians, A week ago he was suddenly seized with some kind of a brain affliction and apparently became a lunatic. He was placed in the city jail for two days for safe-keeping and finally doctors came to the conclusion Dr. Joseph Atkins, Who Began Meeting Will Be Held at Hartford Heirs of Wealthy Lawrenceburg that he was suffering with an abscess of the brain. He was removed to St. Elizabeth Hospital and an operation performed. He never rallied from the effects of the operation and after his death an autopsy was held. It was found that in some way his brain had been injured and inflamma-tion had set in, rendering him partially helpless and affecting his mind to such an extent that he became insane. No abscess was found and the surgeons are unable to account for the inflammation as no sign of a blow was found on his scalp.
